

Bachelor of Library and Information Studies OP7040

This programme is made up of 18 courses worth a total of 360 credits. It is a good idea to plan your study programme before you start.

If you would like to explore other options, please contact us.

Compulsory Courses

LIS501 The Information Environment

LIS502 Navigating and Using Information

LIS503 Connecting with People and Communities

LIS504 Te Ao Maori in the Information Environment

LIS505 Introduction to Communication, Advocacy and Marketing

LIS601 Empowering People and Communities

LIS602 Designing Library and Information Services and Programmes

LIS603 Knowledge Organisation Systems

LIS604 Cultural Competencies in the Information Environment

73213 Research Methods and Interpretation

LIS701 Critical Perspectives for Library and Information Professionals

LIS702 Strategy and Planning in Information Organisations

LIS703 Leadership and Information Services Professional Practice

LIS704 Library and Information Services Professional Practice

LIS705 Library and Information Services Project

Elective Section 1

Select ONE course

Availability

(please refer to the website for trimester availability and type below)

Elective Section 2

Select TWO courses

*the prerequisite course code for this elective