

Bachelor of Applied Science

Communication and Environment OP701007

It is a good idea to plan your study programme before you start. To work out which courses you need to complete your degree, use the study plan below. You can check course availability and prerequisites on the qualification page on our website. You will need 400 credits to complete this Bachelor.

If you need help or have any questions, contact us.

Compulsory Courses

We recommend 72142 and 72140 as your first courses.

72140 Business Communication

72142 Accessing Information

72160 Statistical Analysis

73213 Research Methods and Interpretation

72144 Professional and Technical Writing

72196 Introduction to New Zealand Ecology

72251 Intercultural Communication

72252 Interpersonal Communication

72253 Organisational Communication OR 72280 Plain English for Professional Purposes

72365 Communication Management

72366 Global Communication

72374 Social Informatics

72392 Environmental Management Systems and Strategies

72395 Environment and the Economy

72396 Environmental Perspectives and the Media

Elective Section 1

Select 3 courses with at least 2 at Level 6

Availability

(please refer to the website for trimester availability and type below)

Elective Section 2

Students are required to successfully complete a further 40 credits from any Level 5, 6 or 7 Open Polytechnic programme, or other recognised degree-level programme subject to the Programme Leader's approval. We recommend these electives

*the prerequisite course code for this elective

Key

■ Compulsory

■ Elective